PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZERS VOLUNTEER AT IMPACT THRIFT
NAPO-GPC MEMBERS SUPPORT NONPROFITS FOR “GET ORGANIZED MONTH”

January is GO (Get Organized) Month<sup>SM</sup>, and Philadelphia-area Professional Organizers were ready to help local nonprofits get the job done!

Members of the National Association of Professional Organizers – Greater Philadelphia Chapter (NAPO-GPC) volunteered their time and organizing talents at the Impact Thrift Store in Montgomeryville, PA, on January 28, 2011.

“We realize that many nonprofit organizations do not have the time or resources to hire a Professional Organizer,” says NAPO-GPC Marketing Director and GO Event Coordinator Sara Long. “We were excited to help such a deserving cause.”

Volunteers included Long and Professional Organizers Annette Reyman of Swarthmore, PA; Adriane Weinberg of Ambler, PA; Bev Gwozdz of Telford, PA; Sanka Coyle of Bala Cynwyd, PA; Kathy Luskus of Newtown Square, PA; Bev Ranstead of Wayne, PA; Susan Colket of Titusville, NJ; Deb Lillard of Broomall, PA; and Carla Shipman of Middletown, DE.

Impact Thrift Stores is a non-profit organization whose primary mission is to financially support local charities through the net proceeds generated by their thrift store operations. They have store locations in Hatboro, Montgomeryville and Norristown. For more information, visit www.impactthrift.org.

NAPO-GPC is a nonprofit organization whose missions are to educate members, to promote the highest standards of ethics and professional competence, and to raise public awareness regarding the benefits of organizing. NAPO-GPC members also appeared on Good Morning America and are volunteering at Gilda’s Club South Jersey and NAMI-DE for GO (Get Organized) Month<sup>SM</sup>.
